WEBSITE WITH DISEASE INFORMATION FOR SOYBEAN PRODUCERS

CPN–Crop Protection Network is a product of U.S. Land Grant Universities that provides resources that soybean farmers can use to manage diseases that affect their crop. Of special interest are charts that show efficacy ratings of the various fungicides that can be applied to soybeans for seedling and foliar disease control. Click here to access publications on this site that deal with soybean disease and nematode pests. Click here to access a Soybean Disease Management White Paper that contains a detailed discussion of how diseases can affect a soybean crop, along with whether or not effective varietal resistance to a particular disease exists.
